

May 3, 2011

PRESS RELEASE

David Crawford, President of the Cabell Brand Center and Cabell Brand, Chairman, are happy to announce the winners of the first 4 scholarships for college students. (The full information about our competitive Scholarship program can be found on our web pages)

- <http://www.cabellbrandcenter.org/Scholarships.html>
- <http://www.ifnotmethenwho.org/Scholarship.html>

First Place Winner for the $2000
Charles (Hap) Fisher Scholarship
by The Cabell Brand Center
To Promote the Common Good is:

VMI Cadet Kippur Taylor of Lynchburg, Virginia.

Second, Third and Fourth Place Winners for the three $1000
Shirley Hurt Brand Scholarship(s)
by The Cabell Brand Center
To Promote the Common Good are:

Johanna Cho of Wilmette, IL, currently attending Washington & Lee University
Kathryn Marsh Soloway of Woodbridge, CT, currently attending Washington & Lee University
Danielle Breidung of Lexington, VA, currently attending Washington & Lee University

This scholarship program was funded by Dr. Charles "Hap" Fisher and from the proceeds from the sale of Cabell Brand's book "If not me, Then Who?" and other contributions to our Center. Student applications were required to write an essay on what they planned to do with their studies and life "For the Common Good."